Marion County DHHR relocates to Middletown Mall

Officials of the Department of Health and Human Resources announced today that the Marion County office will be relocated on Monday, April 20. Temporary workspace will be available for workers and customers in Suite 724 at the Middletown Mall, 9395 Middletown Mall, White Hall, West Virginia. In the new location, customers can expect services for child support, TANF, SNAP and emergency assistance. Business hours are 8:30 to 5:00 Monday through Friday.

Additional space in the Middletown Mall is currently being renovated to house DHHR employees. Customers will have full access to DHHR services later this month related to child support, public health and children and families' issues in the mall location.

Customers may call 304-368-4420 for information related to DHHR's Bureau for Children and Families. For assistance from the Bureau for Child Support Enforcement call 304-367-2771.
